ENTRY FORM CONTINUED

I, _____ (name of artist), will present artwork at the Station House Gallery in the summer exhibition 'Reflections - The Art of Self Portraiture', through the Station House Studio & Gallery Society.

I understand that I am responsible to and accept the following policies;

- In the case of a loss or damage due to fire, theft, chipping/marring or shipping mishandling the Gallery will NOT be responsible for compensation to the artist.
- The artist is responsible for transporting all works to and from the Gallery unless alternate arrangements have been made. Artwork must be delivered between July 2nd through July 5th.
- All works must not have been previously shown at the Station House Gallery.
- All artwork must be properly framed, and prepared for hanging upon arrival (including: wired and properly fixed in suitable frames which may include exhibition wrap). Paint must be dry. Matting and framing must be of professional quality and clean. The Station House Gallery will not be responsible or liable for any damages incurred due to improper framing not meeting gallery standards.
- No artwork may be removed during the length of the exhibition without expressed permission of the Gallery's Executive Director.
- Artwork may be offered for sale. The artist will set the prices, which cannot be changed for the duration of the show. A thirty (30) percent commission will be taken by the Gallery from all sales resulting from the exhibition. Artists will be paid by cheque for any sales within the five days following the fifteenth of the next month
